Summary of Financial Results for FY2026/3 Q1

Results for FY2026/3 Q1

(billion yen)	Net Sales	Operating income	Net income
Q1 Results	138.0	6.4	4.6
YoY	+9.4	+0.9	+0.4

- The first year of the new Medium-Term Management Plan got off to a good start with a year-on-year increase in net sales and in all types of income.
- Net sales: electronic components (EMS business), information equipment (PC sales) and others (sales of amusement equipment) businesses all enjoyed strong performance and drove net sales growth.
- Operating income/net income: increase in gross profit resulting from higher net sales and improved income margin, combined with control of SG&A expenses, led to an income increase.

FY2026/3 earnings forecast

(billion yen)	Net Sales	Operating income	Net income
Revised forecasts	574.0	24.0	24.2
vs. previous forecasts	+44.0	+1.0	+7.7

- As the result of Kyoei Sangyo becoming a consolidated subsidiary through a tender offer, the full-year earnings forecast has been revised upward from the previous forecast (announced on May 14), to include the said company's outlook for Q2 and beyond. Reversing the previous forecast, increases are now projected for both net sales and income.
- Net income incorporates 7.2 billion yen in gain on bargain purchase associated with the acquisition.
- Acquisition and cancellation of treasury shares for up to 15 billion yen in total acquisition value or 4.92 million shares (9.4% of the total number of issued shares) (announced on Aug 7)
- In light of the earnings revision, the annual dividend has been revised upward by 10 yen to 120 yen per share (up 10 yen from the previous fiscal year) (announced on Aug 7)
- *A two-for-one stock split was executed in October 2024. Up 10 yen from the previous fiscal year is calculated after adjustment for the stock split.

Segment income	4,331	4,227	-103	-2.4%
Profit margin	3.9%	3.6%	-0.3pt

Main factors behind increase/decrease

Components sales business	(-) Prolonged inventory adjustment at some customers
	(-) Impact of decline in demand from a certain overseas customer
	(+) Expand sales of new products
As a result, net sales increased but income decreased year-on-year
EMS Business	(+) Robust sales to medical and industrial equipment sectors
	(-) Demand decrease at some customers of the automotive sector
As a result, net sales and income both increased year-on-year

Profit margin	6.0%	6.8%	+0.8pt

Main factors behind increase/decrease

PC sales business	(+) Strong sales of PCs for educational institutions amid the season of high demand for newly enrolled students
	(+) Recovery of sales of PCs for mass retailers due to expansion of product lines by a major PC supplier
	(+) Strong sales of the comparatively high-margin security software products
As a result, net sales and income both increased year-on-year
Electrical and telecommunication equipment installation business	(+) Strong performance of LED installation work for convenience store chains
	(+) Increased orders received for electric facility (electricity substations, solar panels) work
	(-) Increase in SG&A expenses due to bolstering of construction personnel as an advance investment
As a result, net sales increased but income decreased year-on-year
