

[Video]

[Component mounting]

(0 minutes 46 seconds)

 KAGA ELECTRONICS

29

–Video playback– (0 minute 46 seconds)

From here onward, the components will be mounted. You can see five machines. The components are loaded at the bottom of this machine. The middle robot performs the process of picking up these components from the near side and opposite side and placing them on the board. This scene shows components being placed at rapid speed.