KAGA ELECTRONICS CO., LTD. AND CONSOLIDATED SUBSIDIARIES

CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2015 AND INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors of Kaga Electronics Co., Ltd.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Kaga Electronics Co., Ltd. ("the Company") and its consolidated subsidiaries, which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2015, and the consolidated statement of income and comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in net assets and consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, while the purpose of the financial statements audit is not to express an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries as at March 31, 2015, and their financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

Emphasis of Matter

We draw attention to Note 17 to the financial statements which describe the execution of a memorandum of understanding related to the management integration between the Company and UKC Holdings Corporation, following the resolution at the board of directors' meeting, on November 18, 2015. Our opinion is not qualified in respect of this matter.

Convenience translation

The U.S. dollar amounts in the accompanying consolidated financial statements with respect to the year ended March 31, 2015 are presented solely for convenience. Our audit also included the translation of Japanese yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts and, in our opinion, such translation has been made on the basis described in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements For the Years Ended March 31, 2014 and 2015

1. BASIS OF PREPARATION OF CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Japanese Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and its related accounting regulations, and in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan ("Japanese GAAP"), which are different in certain respects as to application and disclosure requirements of International Financial Reporting Standards.

The consolidated financial statements are stated in Japanese yen, the currency of the country in which Kaga Electronics Co., Ltd. (the "Company") is incorporated and operates. Amounts less than ¥1 million have been omitted. As a result, the total shown in the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto do not necessarily agree with the sum of the individual account balances. The translations of Japanese yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts are included solely for the convenience of readers outside Japan and have been made at the rate of ¥120.17 to $1, the rate of exchange at March 31, 2015. Such translations should not be construed as representations that the Japanese yen amounts could be converted into U.S. dollars at that or any other rate.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a. Consolidation—The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and all of its subsidiaries (49 in 2015 and 48 in 2014) (together, the "Group").

Under the control and influence concept, those companies in which the Company, directly or indirectly, is able to exercise control over operations are fully consolidated, and those companies over which the Group has the ability to exercise significant influence are accounted for by the equity method.

The Group doesn't have any unconsolidated subsidiary or affiliated company to which the equity method is applied. Two affiliated companies to which the equity method is not applied are immaterial to the Company's consolidated net income and retained earnings, individually and in the aggregate.

Goodwill is being amortized over a period of five years.

All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. All material unrealized profit included in assets resulting from transactions within the Group is eliminated.

The fiscal year-end of some of the Company's consolidated subsidiaries (12 in 2015 and 2014) is December 31. The consolidated financial statements incorporate the accounts of these companies with adjustments for significant transactions arising during the period from January 1 to March 31.

- b. Cash Equivalents—Cash equivalents are short-term investments that are readily convertible into cash and that are exposed to insignificant risk of changes in value. Cash equivalents include time deposits and short-term investments, all of which mature or become due within three months of the date of acquisition.
- c. Inventories—The Company and domestic subsidiaries state specific merchandise inventories ordered by customers should be at the lower of cost, determined by the specific identification method, or market value and that other merchandise inventories should be at the lower of cost, determined principally by the moving-average method, or market value.

The overseas subsidiaries state inventories at the lower of cost, determined principally by the first-in, first-out method, or market value.

d. Marketable and Investment Securities—Marketable and investment securities are classified and accounted for, depending on management's intent, as follows: (1) trading securities, which are held for the purpose of earning capital gains in the near term are reported at fair value, and the related unrealized gains and losses are included in earnings, and (2) available-for-sale securities, which are reported at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses, net of applicable taxes, reported in a component of net assets.

Non-marketable available-for-sale securities are stated at cost as determined by the moving-average method. For other than temporary declines in fair value, investment securities are reduced to net realizable value by a charge to income.

e. Property, Plant and Equipment—Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost. Significant replacements and additions are capitalized; maintenance and repairs, and minor replacements and improvements are charged to income as incurred.

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment of the Company and its consolidated domestic subsidiaries is computed substantially by the declining-balance method at rates based on the estimated useful lives of the assets, while the straight-line method is applied to buildings acquired after April 1, 1998, lease assets of the Company and its consolidated domestic subsidiaries, and all property, plant and equipment of foreign subsidiaries.

Buildings and structures	4 to 50 years
Machinery, equipment and vehicles	5 to 12 years
Tools, furniture and fixtures	2 to 20 years

- f. Goodwill—Goodwill is amortized on a straight-line method over the estimated period of benefit with the exception of minor amounts, which are charged or credited to income directly in the year of acquisition.
- g. Software—Software is recorded in other assets and is amortized using the straight-line method over its estimated useful life.

Internal use software 5 years
Software for sale 5 years

- h. Retirement and Pension Plans—To prepare for disbursement of employees' retirement benefits under the defined benefit plan, a defined benefit liability, which is the amount of defined benefit obligations less plan assets based on the expected benefit obligation at the end of the fiscal year, is recognized. The retirement benefit obligations are calculated by allocating the estimated retirement benefit amount until the end of the current fiscal year on the benefit formula basis. Past service cost is primarily amortized on a straight-line method over a 10-year period, which is shorter than the average remaining years of service of the eligible employees. Net actuarial gain or loss is primarily amortized from the following year on a straight-line method over a 10-year period, which is shorter than the average remaining years of service of the eligible employees. Actuarial gain and loss and past service costs that are yet to be recognized as gains or losses are recorded as remeasurements of defined benefit plans presented in accumulated other comprehensive income of the net asset section, after being adjusted for tax effects.
- i. Leases—The Company applies the lease accounting standard, which requires all finance lease transactions be capitalized in the balance sheet. However, the Company accounts for the leases which existed before March 31, 2008 and do not transfer ownership of the leased property to the lessee as operating lease transactions. This treatment is also permitted by the lease accounting standard.
- j. Allowance for doubtful accounts—The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries provide for doubtful accounts principally at an amount based on the historical bad debt ratio during a certain reference period plus an estimated uncollectible amount based on the analysis of certain individual accounts.
- k. Provision for directors' bonuses—Bonuses to directors and corporate auditors are accrued during the year in which such bonuses are attributable.

- I. Provision for directors' retirement benefits—The Company accrues liabilities related to retirement benefits for directors and corporate auditors, which is, in general, based upon the amounts required by the internal rules.
- m. Translation of Foreign Currencies—Receivables and payables denominated in foreign currencies are translated into yen at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date, and differences arising from the translation are charged or credited to income.

Assets and liabilities of the foreign consolidated subsidiaries are translated into yen at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date, and revenue and expense accounts are translated at the average rates of exchange in effect during the year. Differences arising from the translation are presented as translation adjustments and minority interests in net assets.

n. Derivatives and Hedging Activities

1. Hedge accounting method

The Company applies the deferred hedge method. The Company, however, adopts the allocation method to account for forward exchange contracts if the requirements for the allocation method are met. The Company also adopts the special method to account for interest rate swaps, which meet the requirements for specific matching criteria.

2. Hedging instruments and hedged items

(Hedging instruments)

Foreign currency forward contract transactions

NDF transactions

Interest rate swaps

(Hedged items)

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies

Interest rates on long-term loans payable

3. Hedging policy

The Company determines the hedging policy based on the internal rules. Foreign currency forward contracts where there is expected risk such as fluctuation in foreign exchange are hedged. Interest rate swaps where there is expected risk such as fluctuation in interest rates on long-term loans payable are hedged.

4. Assessment of hedge effectiveness

Hedge effectiveness is assessed by comparing the changing ratio of cash flows arising from the hedged items and the hedging instruments during the periods from the respective start dates of the hedges to the assessment dates. Also, regarding interest rate swaps, the Company omits assessment of hedge effectiveness based upon the fulfillment of the requirements for specific matching criteria.

o. Accounting for consumption tax—Consumption tax on goods and services is not included in the revenue and expense amounts.

p. Changes in Accounting Policies

The main clause of Article 35 of the Accounting Standard for Retirement Benefits (ASBJ Statement No. 26, May 17, 2012; "Accounting Standard") and the main clause of Article 67 of the Guidance on Accounting Standard for Retirement Benefits (ASBJ Guidance No. 25, March 26, 2015; "Guidance") were adopted in the consolidated fiscal year and the method of calculating retirement benefit obligation and service costs changed. Specifically, the method used for determining the portion of projected benefit obligation to be attributed to individual periods changed from the straight-line method to the benefit formula basis. In addition, the method for determining the discount rates to be applied in calculating the retirement benefit obligation changed from the method of using a period approximating employees' average remaining years of service to a single weighted-average discount rate that reflects the estimated amounts and periods over which the benefit will be paid.

The Accounting Standard and Guidance were adopted according to the transitional treatment set forth in Article 37 of the Accounting Standard, and the effects of the change in calculation methods of the retirement benefit obligation and service costs were adjusted against retained earnings as at the beginning of the current fiscal year.

As a result, net defined benefit liability decreased by ¥292 million ($2,468 thousand) and retained earnings increased by ¥188 million ($1,568 thousand). The effect on operating income, ordinary income, and income before income taxes and minority interests for the consolidated fiscal year is negligible. The effect on net assets per share increased by ¥6.67 ($0.05) and the effect on net income per share for the consolidated fiscal year is negligible.

7. LEASES

Finance leases that do not transfer ownership of the leased assets to lessees.

Leased assets:

The Group leases buildings, machinery, equipment and vehicles and other assets.

As described in Note 2.i, the lease accounting standard requires that all finance lease transactions should be capitalized to recognize lease assets and lease obligations in the balance sheet. However, the accounting standard permits leases without ownership transfer of the leased property to the lessees and whose lease inception dates were before March 31, 2008 to continue to be accounted for as operating lease transactions. The Company applied the accounting standard effective from April 1, 2008 and accounted for such leases as operating lease transactions.

(1) Leased property whose lease inception date was before March 31, 2008 was as follows:

	Millions of Yen

(4) Computation of depreciation

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the lease term assuming a residual value of zero.

(5) Computation of interest expenses

The excess amount of the sum of minimum lease payment over the acquisition cost is regarded as accumulated interest expenses, and is allocated to each period based on the interest method.

Future lease payments under noncancelable operating leases at March 31, 2015 and 2014 were as follows:

Total	¥ 421	¥ 155	$ 1,295

8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RELATED DISCLOSURES

(1) Group Policy for Financial Instruments

The Group has financial instruments, mainly debt from financial institutions, consistent with its capital financing plan. Cash surpluses, if any, are invested in low risk financial assets. Derivatives are not used for speculative purposes, but rather to manage exposure to foreign exchange risks.

(2) Nature and Extent of Risks Arising from Financial Instruments

Receivables such as trade notes and trade accounts are exposed to customer credit risk. Although receivables in foreign currencies are exposed to the risk of fluctuation in foreign currency exchange rates, the position, net of payables in foreign currencies, is hedged by using forward foreign currency contracts. Marketable and investment securities, mainly held-to-maturity securities and equity instruments of customers and suppliers of the Company, are exposed to the risk of market price fluctuations.

(3) Risk Management for Financial Instruments

Credit risk management

The Company manages its credit risk from receivables on the basis of internal guidelines, which include monitoring the payment terms and balances of major customers by each business administration department to identify the default risk of customers in an early stage.

Market risk management (foreign exchange risk)

Foreign currency trade receivables and payables are exposed to market risk resulting from fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. Such foreign exchange risk is hedged principally by forward foreign currency contracts.

Marketable and investment securities are managed by monitoring market values and financial position of issuers on a regular basis.

(4) Fair Values of Financial Instruments

Fair values of financial instruments are based on quoted prices in active markets. If quoted prices are not available, other rational valuation techniques are used. Please see Note 10 for the detail of fair value for derivatives.

Cash and cash equivalents, receivables and payables, short-term bank loans, accrued expenses, income taxes payables

The carrying value of the above accounts approximate fair value because of their short maturities.

Guarantee deposits

The fair value of guaranteed deposits is calculated by the contract amount supplier presented or calculated from past experience and discounted by a risk free rate.

Marketable and investment securities

The fair values of marketable and investment securities are measured at the quoted market price for the equity instruments, and at the quoted price obtained from the financial institution for certain debt instruments. The information of the fair value for the marketable and investment securities by classification is included in Note 9.

Long-term loans payables

The fair value of long-term loans payable is determined by discounting the cash flows related to the debt at the Group's assumed corporate borrowing rate.

Derivatives

The information of the fair value for derivatives is included in Note 10.

Specific matching criteria for interest rate swap is accounted for together with long-term loans payable designated as the hedge item. Therefore, their fair values are included in the fair value of the long-term loans payable.

11. RETIREMENT BENEFITS

(1) Outline of retirement benefits plans

Under the pension plans, employees terminating their employment are, in most circumstances, entitled to pension payments based on their average pay during their employment, length of service and certain other factors. The defined benefit plans and lump-sum payment plans of some of the consolidated subsidiaries are calculated using simplified methods.

(2) Defined benefit pension plans

(2) A reconciliation between the normal effective statutory tax rate and the actual effective tax rate reflected in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations for the years ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 is as follows:

	2014	2015
Normal effective statutory tax rate	38.0%	35.6%
Expenses not deductible for income tax purposes	2.7	1.5
Tax benefits not recognized on operating losses of subsidiaries	(1.2)	2.4
Difference in tax rates of foreign subsidiaries	(9.3)	(8.6)
Dividends from overseas subsidiaries and deferred income taxes
on retained profits of overseas subsidiaries	4.2	4.8
Others, net	(3.0)	3.4
Actual effective tax rate	31.3%	39.2%

(3) Change in corporate tax rate

The "Act for Partial Amendment of the Income Tax Act, etc." (Act No. 9 of 2015) and the "Act for Partial Amendment of the Local Tax Act, etc." (Act No. 2 of 2015) were promulgated on March 31, 2015 and, as a result, tax rates became or will become lower for fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2015. As a result, the effective statutory tax rate used to calculate the Company's deferred tax assets and liabilities changed from 35.6% to 33.1% for the temporary differences expected to be realized or settled for the fiscal year beginning on April 1, 2015, and to 32.3% for the temporary differences expected to be realized or settled for fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2016.

The effect of the announced reduction of the corporate tax rate was to increase deferred tax assets (after offsetting deferred tax liabilities), valuation difference on available-for-sale securities and deferred gains on hedges by ¥55 million ($459 thousand), ¥50 million ($421 thousand) and ¥0 million ($7 thousand), respectively, and decrease deferred income tax and accumulated remeasurements of the net defined benefit liability by ¥15 million ($131 thousand) and ¥12 million ($101 thousand), respectively, as of and for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015.

13. BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

No significant items to be reported.

14. SEGMENT INFORMATION

(1) Description of reportable segments

The Group's reportable segments are those for which separate financial information is available and regular evaluation by the Company's management is being performed in order to decide how resources are allocated among the Group. The Group has four reporting segments that are made of different categories of products and services: electronic components, information equipment, software and other. The electronic components segment includes the development, manufacture and sale of semiconductors, general electronic components and other products, the electronics manufacturing service (EMS), and other activities. The information equipment segment includes sales of PCs, PC peripherals, photograph and imaging products, original brand products, and other products. The software segment includes the production of computer graphics, planning and development of amusement products, and other activities. The other segment includes the fix and support of electronic components, the manufacture and sale of amusement equipment, sales of sports goods and other activities.

(2) Methods of measurement for the amounts of sales, profit (loss), assets, liabilities and other items for each reportable segment

The accounting policies of each reportable segment are consistent to those disclosed in Note 2, "SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES".

17. SIGNIFICANT SUBSEQUENT EVENT

(The execution of a memorandum of Understanding Concerning Management Integration)

The Company and UKC Holdings Corporation ("UKC Holdings") resolved to execute a Memorandum of Understanding in connection with their intentions to achieve a management integration with the spirit of equal partnership (the "Management Integration") (the "MOU") at the meetings of the board of directors of the two companies held on November 18, 2015 and executed the MOU on the same day.

Both companies will conduct further examinations toward the Management Integration in the spirit of equal partnership.

(1) Objectives of the Management Integration

The two companies will ensure industry-leading scale and quality in Japan by accomplishing the following goals. In addition, the two companies will develop into one of the premier electronics trading companies in the world that meet the various needs of their customers, thereby enhancing their corporate value.

- (a) Improving the ability to respond to customer needs

  The two companies will further strengthen their business and product line-up to be expanded by the management integration, and build a business platform which will enable them to provide a one-stop solution in response to the various needs of their existing and new customers.
- (b) Accelerating global strategy By utilizing their overseas bases, the two companies will enhance complementarity in the group, and increase the ability to deal with overseas expansion by their customers and to deal with their local customers.
- (c) Reducing costs through improving business efficiency
  The two companies will improve the business efficiency of the group and reduce costs by, for example, establishing efficient and rational shared operations, sharing and rationalizing their distribution networks and other infrastructure in their domestic and overseas bases, and integrating their core systems in the future.
- (d) Establishing a strong managerial foundation The two companies will establish a stronger managerial foundation by, for example, strengthening their financial base and fund-raising ability that enable new investments and mergers and acquisitions by two companies, and energizing the organization by mutually utilizing their human resources and knowhow.

(2) Outline of the Management Integration

On the condition of gaining approvals at the shareholders' meetings of the two companies and obtaining the approvals of the relevant authorities and the like necessary for carrying out the Management Integration, the companies aim to realize the Management Integration as summarized below. Further details will be decided on or before the execution of the definitive agreement regarding the Management Integration upon consultation between the two companies.

(a) Method of Management Integration

The two companies have selected a holding company system as the organizational structure following the Management Integration in order to take advantage of the strengths of the two companies while preserving their individuality. Specifically, the two companies plan to carry out the Management Integration in the following manner.

(i) Share Exchange

A share exchange will be carried out between UKC Holdings as the wholly owning parent company in the share exchange and Kaga Electronics as the wholly owned subsidiary company in the share exchange (the "Share Exchange"). As Kaga Electronics will become a wholly owned subsidiary company of UKC Holdings by the Share Exchange, the common shares of Kaga Electronics are scheduled to be delisted, in accordance with the delisting standards of the Tokyo Stock Exchange, before the effective date of the Share Exchange.

(ii) Company Split

Following the completion of the Share Exchange, a company split will be carried out, in which UKC Holdings will be the splitting company and all of UKC Holdings' businesses (excluding certain functions necessary for making UKC Holdings a holding company after the Share Exchange takes effect; the same shall apply hereinafter) will be the businesses subject to the split (the "Company Split"). As a result of the Company Split, all of UKC Holdings' businesses will be taken over by either a new company to be incorporated through the Company Split or a succeeding company to be wholly owned by UKC Holdings, whereby UKC Holdings will become a holding company (UKC Holdings after becoming a holding company; the "Holding Company").

(b) Schedule (Planned)

November 18, 2015	Execution of the MOU
B y May 2016 (planned)	Execution of the definitive agreement regarding the Management Integration (including the execution of a share exchange agreement regarding the Share Exchange and either the preparation of a plan for the incorporation-type company split or the execution of an agreement on an absorption-type company split regarding the Company Split)
late June 2016 (planned)	Approval of the share exchange agreement regarding the Share Exchange at the annual general meeting of shareholders of Kaga Electronics
late June 2016 (planned)	Approval of the share exchange agreement regarding the Share Exchange and either a plan for an incorporation-type company split or an agreement on an absorption-type company split regarding the Company Split at the annual general meeting of shareholders of UKC Holdings
October 1, 2016 (planned)	Effective date of the Share Exchange and the Company Split

The two companies plan to execute a definitive agreement regarding the Management Integration as well as to execute a share exchange agreement regarding the Share Exchange and either prepare a plan for an incorporation-type company split or execute an agreement on an absorption-type company split regarding the Company Split by May 2016, and to present a proposal on the approval of the Share Exchange and the Company Split (for UKC Holdings only) at the annual general meeting of shareholders of each company to be held in late June 2016.

However, the above schedule may be changed as necessary for carrying out the procedures or for other reasons, upon consultation and agreement between the two companies. Also, in carrying out the procedures and consultations for the Management Integration, the companies will promptly announce any events which would delay or prohibit implementation of the Management Integration due to filing to be made with the Japan Fair Trade Commission or other relevant authorities (including filing to be made under foreign laws), obtaining of approvals and permissions or other reasons.

- (c) Overview of the Holding Company
  - (i) Trade name (tentative)
    UKC Kaga Holdings Corporation
  - (ii) Location of the Head Office (tentative)20 Kandamatsunagacho, Chiyoda-ku, TokyoNote:
